15-minute one on one meetings are being scheduled for companies to meet with NASA Contracting Officer and Technical Organizations. Please contact Theresa Stevens at theresa.a.stevens@nasa.gov for an appointment time, if interested.

Please be reminded there will be no parking allowed in the NASA parking garage. There is adjacent parking garages for public usage in the areas around the NASA building.

As you can see, the agenda has NASA's new administrator speaking directly to Industry at 2:30pm in the NASA Auditorium. We would like to encourage your attendance.

There has been significant interest in Industry Day and in an attempt to open up the morning session to all, we have established a WebEx and call-in number. WebEx attendees may present questions during the event that will be answered either during the event as time allows or posted to the eLibrary and/or FBO.

Please see the following link or call in number to join us:
